

Officers in the cover photograph

This is a list of 18 officers who may appear in the cover photograph, out of the total 19. It includes the men named in Otto von Below's diary as attending Hindenburg's visit to Sixth Army on 27 May 1917; and corps commanders in the Army on that date, who Below doesn't name but says were present, together with their chiefs of staff.

| Gruppe Quéant | Guard Reserve Corps | General der Kavallerie Wolf Freiherr Marschall von Altengottern |
| | | Oberst Hans von Kessel |

Control of Gruppe Souchez moved from VIII Reserve Corps to VI Reserve Corps on 27 May, so it's not clear which commander and chief of staff would have been at this meeting. The VI Reserve Corps commander and chief of staff were Generalleutnant Kurt von dem Borne and Major Edwin von Stülpnagel.
